These sources of information helped me to understand the ideas of other people, scientists and non-scientists. My personal ideas are based on scientific sources. In my conversations in the world we can touch, I noticed that non-scientific sources can be used to build bridges between the academia and other people. Since it is my mission to build bridges of knowledge to connect people in the world we can touch, I explain things as an integration of scientific and non-scientific knowledge.
